

Denise Barber-Moses
2904 Morson Street
Charlotte, NC 28208
704-914-8770
denisenessebarber@yahoo.com

Denise graduated in 1977 from Hunter Huss High School in Gastonia, North Carolina, and received her Bachelor of Science degree from Gardner Webb University, Boiling Springs, NC and her Master of Educational Counseling from Winthrop University, Rock Hill, SC.

She currently serves as the J,Craft WorkForce Development Director for Lane Construction in Charlotte, NC.

Denise is currently the owner of two businesses; (1) the CEO/Owner of Bridging Families 4ever which is a mentor advocacy group (2) CEO/Owner of "WordUp" an educational tutoring group both located here in Charlotte.

Denise is a Board Member of a girls mentoring group here in Charlotte "Caring Purses" and has currently serving as the Director of the 2013 Martin Luther King, Jr. Legacy Project. Denise has been appointed to co-direct the new "Charlotte Job Help" Group and to sit on the Board of Director for the 2014 Mecklenburg County Community Relations Board as well as the Board of Directors PPRE Forevergreen.

In 2011 Denise was recognized as "Member of the Year" by the Mecklenburg Baptist Association.

Denise is the proud mother of two wonderful daughters; Dr. Jhaela S. Felder from Charlotte, NC and Mrs. Shaina F. Sadler from Gastonia, NC. She has three grandchildren, Zorayah, Journee and RaSean Sadler.

Denise wants to be remembered as "May the work I've done speak for me" and "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me"-Philippians 4:13.